Exclusive - In Carciano, just a few minutes from the lakefront and the center of Stresa, we are offering for sale a charming three-room apartment with a stunning view directly overlooking the Borromean Islands, featuring a private garden and a large storage room that also overlooks the lake. The apartment is located on the first floor and consists of an entryway, a separate kitchenette that can be opened up to a bright living room with a balcony facing the lake, which also extends laterally toward both the master bedroom and the private garden. The sleeping area features a single bedroom facing the mountains, a bathroom with a window, shower, and washing machine, and a double bedroom connected to the balcony overlooking the lake. The apartment has independent heating with a condensing boiler and single-pane windows with electric shutters. The property features a small entry patio connected to the private garden, which also offers lake views. On the ground floor is a large 115-square-meter storage space, also with a lake view, which c ...
